What is the Virginia Recreation and Park Society?

VRPS is a private, non-profit professional organization, founded in 1953 and incorporated in 1956. Its purpose is to unite all professionals, students, and interested lay persons engaged in the field of recreation, parks and other leisure services in the Commonwealth of Virginia, into one body. The members work together to promote and improve the profession in all its diversity. VRPS is affiliated with the National Recreation and Park Association.

Why should I attend the VRPS Annual Conference?

Each year VRPS members and friends gather for the Annual Conference which provides an opportunity for professionals, students, and exhibitors to discuss trends and areas of common interest. In addition to the educational aspects, the conference provides opportunities for networking and professional recognition.

Complimentary student registration to 2018 Annual Conference is made possible through a generous educational grant from Foundation of the Virginia Recreation and Park Society. Student membership must be valid at time of conference registration and through November 30, 2018. Students must be enrolled FULL-TIME in a college or university to qualify.
